In keeping with its tradition of putting Bangalore on the global map for Fine Arts ranging from Films to Art to Luxury/Lifestyle, The Collection - UB City in association with Sublime Galleria is organizing the First Edition of a non-competitive International Film Festival titled 'Film Harvest 2012'. Conceptualized by Ms. Uzma Irfan, the film festival will showcase a variety of films ranging from short films to documentaries & full length features all bearing the underlying theme of 'Social Responsibility'. The objective of this initiative is to create an annual event that will provide an international platform for film-makers from across the world.

The moving image and still image have always been brothers in arms, inspiring each other to great and greater heights. Sublime Galleria, in its bid to showcase Creative and thought-provoking artworks related to Cinema during Film Harvest 2012, to their ever-growing list of patrons, will be showcasing 'Art inspired by Films' - a collection of photographs inspired by Cinema by talented photographer, Hari Adivarekar as well as Graphic Art by Soraya Taher Merchant.

Conceptualized by Ms. Uzma Irfan, the film festival will showcase a variety of films ranging from short films to documentaries & full length features all bearing the underlying theme of 'Social Responsibility'.

To ensure a truly international flavour to this event, the Festival is being organized by an ensemble crew which includes noted personalities from the fields of Art & Cinema. Serving as part of the organizing committee is:
 Festival Director - Padmashree Mr. Girish Kasaralli, legendary movie director of international repute with 11 National Awards to his credit
 Festival Chairperson - Ms. Uzma Irfan - Founder, Sublime Galleria & Executive Director, Prestige Group
 Festival Curator - Ricky Kej, reputed Music Director
 Festival Advisor & Programmer - Mr. Srinivasa Santhanum, Organizer of the Chennai, Pune, Chandigarh Film Festivals.
