

See and Do · Films

HARVEST 2012 AND EUROPEAN UNION FILM FEST

Raining films in Bengaluru

The mild showers are bringing in some films too, this season. Two film festivals with over 30 films wait for film lovers.

By Anisha Nair

17 Mar 2012, Citizen Matters

+ bookmark email print

Bengaluru is all set to host its first edition of Film Harvest 2012 starting from March 16, 2012 to March 20, 2012. UB City, The Collection in association with Sublime Galleria presents "Film Harvest 2012" with an aspiration to create an international platform for filmmakers from across the world.

Uzma Irfan, Director of Prestige Group, who also serves as the Festival Chairperson, has conceptualised the festival. The film festival will showcase a variety of films ranging from short film to documentaries & full-length features, all made on the theme of Social Responsibility. The film festival will begin with a musical concert - "Cinema Classics" by Revolution Studios and will be followed by the screening of Academy Award nominated film "Tree of Life" directed by Terrence Malick.

A total of 11 films will be showcased in this film festival, which is organised by people from the fields of Art & Cinema, which include legendary Kannada movie director of international repute Padmashree Girish Kasaravalli as Festival Director, Music Director Ricky Kej as Festival Curator & Mr. Srinivasa Santhanam as Festival Advisor & Programmer.

The registration fee is Rs. 700.

Venue: UB City, # 24, Vittal Mallya Road, Bangalore - 560 001

For more details on the films to be screened, visit Film Harvest 2012

BENGALURU LATEST DEALS

Finesse Spa

Koramangala

Beauty

₹ 1600

Finesse Spa

Koramangala

Beauty

₹ 900

Finesse Spa

Koramangala

Beauty

₹ 450

Wings Creations

Advertise in Citizen Matters

Buy Apartments in Bangalore

Find now

commonfloor

CommonFloor.com

Ads by Go

NEW

Job openings

We are hiring! Click here for details...

Download FREE Desktop wallpaper

Calendar 2012 - Click here!

More..

